To receive updated information about COVID-19 in Suffolk County, text “COVIDSUFFOLK” to 67283. To receive updates in Spanish, text "COVIDESPANOL" to the same number.

Suffolk County's 311 hotline is "the call that does it all," connecting residents with the resources that they need. Have a question? Call 311 or our office at (631) 854-5100.

Governor Cuomo issued an executive order extending the period for paying property taxes by 21 days, without interest or penalty. The new deadline to pay property taxes in Suffolk County is June 20, 2020. To read the full text of the Governor’s executive order, please click here.

As Long Island anticipates entering Phase 2 in the coming weeks, businesses should read the reopening guidelines set forth by New York State and submit an affirmation before reopening. The guidelines can be found by clicking here. For clarification about which industries will be included in Phase 2, click here. Additionally, New York State has published a tool that businesses can use to determine when they are permitted to reopen. To access that tool, click here.

Governor Cuomo announced that outdoor dining at restaurants will be permitted during Phase 2. For more information, click here.

Governor Cuomo also announced that summer and day camps can open statewide on June 29th. A decision about sleep-away camps will be made in the coming weeks. Additional information and guidance is forthcoming.

The New York State Liquor Authority has published guidance on restrictions for licensees regarding to-go and delivery sales. For that guidance, click here.
Dentists' offices have been permitted to reopen statewide as of June 1, 2020. In order to reopen, offices must be subject to state guidance on best practices for safety and social distancing. For more information, click here.

The Governor issued an executive order empowering businesses to deny service to customers that are not wearing proper face coverings. To read the text of the executive order, click here.

Guidelines regarding religious and funeral services have recently been updated. For those guidelines, click here.

The Department of Motor Vehicles has resumed limited remote services as of June 1, 2020. As regions enter Phase 3 of reopening, limited in-person transactions in state-run DMV offices will take place, prioritizing critical services. Road tests will also resume at that time. For more information, click here.

CVS has made drive-thru testing available at pharmacies in our area. These are self-swab, diagnostic tests. There are available at:

Candlewood Road and 5th Avenue in Brentwood
520 Larkfield Road in East Northport
2000 Jericho Turnpike in East Northport
111 Depot Road in Huntington Station

For more information, and to register to be tested in advance, click here.

CityMD walk-in clinics have recently begun administering the COVID-19 antibody test. For more information, click here.