

The Farmingville Residents Association Youth Civic is putting together a book of fond memories that veterans experienced during their time serving. One of our members comes from a family of veterans, and came up with this project in order to help share their stories. She would like any proceeds from the book to go to care packages, and local organizations that support our veterans. We want to hear from you! Send us your stories to fra23@optonline.net

